"It is not the will of your Father which is in Heaven that one of these little Ones should perish," Matt. 18:14.

Dear Parents of Deaf Children

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd and Lover of all children, invites you to send your loved ones to our Christian school for deaf and hard of hearing children in order that they might here be brought into His loving arms and so to everlasting happiness. He says, "Suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God." The doors of our beautiful Institute are open and we are eager to welcome your little ones into our happy family.

Field Secretary's Message

Greetings, Friends:

Shake!—A hearty thanks and fervent God bless you!

It's a great pleasure to be addressing you again. For over two years during our building campaign due to lack of space we had to forego our little chats. If, therefore, this turns out to be more than a chat, I know you'll not deny me your kind attention.

Sometime during the course of the past three years I've had the joyful privilege of being with you in person, making your acquaintance, and presenting by sermon, lecture or picture the blessed work and accomplishments of your school for the deaf in Detroit.

It was then also that your Christian hearts reacted with compassion and love and you charitably determined and declared to be friends to these unfortunate children—praying, helping friends.

And what a beautiful demonstration of Christian friendship you gave!

When you were told of the crisis facing your only Institute for deaf children, your response was that of true and sincere friends. You were friends in need, therefore friends indeed.

The beautiful and serviceable buildings, the descriptions and pictures of which were contained in the last issue of "The Deaf Child's Advocate," are the visible and tangible proofs of your friendship. They are the results of your prayers and gifts. They stand there as glorious monuments of your mercy, faith and love.

You have prepared a sanctuary for children so sadly deprived of their hearing and speech. Here they receive one of the finest secular educations obtainable and are made useful members of society, and to this end they are taught to speak with voice. You are helping them find their voice and place in life. But above all, here they find peace, comfort and hope from heaven for their troubled little hearts and lives. They are brought to the beautiful and loving Savior and become trusting little lambs in the fold of His redeemed. You are making them citizens and heirs of the kingdom of heaven. And now these also become for time and eternity living immortal monuments of your love.

Such friendship as yours is not only beautiful to behold, but an encouragement to others and a blessing to yourselves and helpless little children. Your friendship is a comforting assurance to our deaf children that you will continue to remember them and their school's needs with your loving gifts and friendly support.

The number of these handicapped children coming to us for the Bread of Life is growing steadily, especially since the erection of the new buildings. Of course, that means an increasing maintenance cost. But with your regular friendly support, whether that be much or little, we will be able to continue to feed Christ's little lambs.

I regret that during the past two years it was impossible to credit everyone of you with your individual contributions. For over two years we refrained from sending you the yearly envelope for your gift of love, because we did not want to cause confusion or inconvenience by too many appeals. I know, for many of you told me so, that a great number of you friends contributed without envelope to the congregational building fund collection. This made it impossible to credit you with your token of friendship. However, in the future we will be able again to acknowledge and record all gifts as was done previously.

This coming fall, winter, and spring I shall again be busy in various states making known by moving pictures and word of mouth the grand work and astounding achievements of your Institute for the Deaf. Shots of the dedication service at which Dr. W. A. Maier preached and pictures completely covering the exterior and interior of the new buildings will be included. These pictures are so well executed and have such a human and spiritual appeal that I am showing it by request for the second and third time to some congregations. So, friend, if it be your congregation that I will visit again, I sincerely hope to see you and renew our acquaintance.

Those pastors desiring to schedule the picture for showing, please communicate with me at the Institute. I will be happy to make some arrangement.

Again, dear friends, thank you and God bless you. "Blessed are the merciful," declares the Christ.

In concluding, I know that you join me in giving praise and thanks to God, who moveth the hearts of His children and giveth the desire, the will, and power to do kindness and good and show mercy and love. God be with you 'till we meet again.

REV. J. M. KEMPF,
Field Secretary.

Confirmation-Day a Happy Day

Deaf children are sent to our school in order that they might here learn to know the way to salvation and be prepared for confirmation and church membership. From the time a child enters our school, that aim is constantly before him. The day when that goal has finally been reached is indeed a happy one for both parents and children. The 26th of May was such a happy day for six of our pupils and their parents. The children confirmed on that day were Irene Allmandinger who came to us from Ironton, Missouri; Jerald Jordan of Roseville, Mich.; Norman Hollrah of St. Charles, Mo.; Donald Neitzke of Mt. Prospect, Ill.; William Noel of Moberly, Mo., and Dorothy Wenner of Cleveland, Ohio.

The parents and other relatives of these children came and were present to witness the examination and confirmation in Our Savior church of which the Rev. Ed. Buchheimer and his father, Dr. L. B. Buchheimer are the pastors. Director J. A. Klein examined the children after which the Rev. N. Borchardt, missionary to the deaf, confirmed the class.

The children who completed our eighth grade course of study have now left our school. Two of them will continue their education in high schools for hearing children, the others will receive their high school and vocational training in their respective State Schools for the Deaf. We sincerely hope and pray that they all will be loyal members of the Lutheran church in their respective communities.

WALTKE REMEMBERS OUR INSTITUTION

Mr. Louis H. Waltke of St. Louis, Missouri, who was called to his heavenly home in February of 1939, remembered our Institute to the extent of $2,000.00 in his last will and testament. Throughout his life-time Mr. Waltke always had a soft spot in his heart for the underprivileged and afflicted. Many were his gifts of love and faith to charitable homes and institutions in and around St. Louis and beyond.

We are most grateful for this generous bequest, and since we cannot personally thank Mr. Waltke who has gone to his heavenly reward, we want to thank Mrs. Waltke and her family and above all also our heavenly Father who moves the hearts of His children to deeds of love through faith in His beloved Son, Jesus Christ.

In the June issue of the Advocate Mr. Waltke's bequest was incorrectly acknowledged as a gift from the Waltke Investment Company. It should have been listed "bequest of Louis H. Waltke, deceased, $2,000.00."

HANDICRAFT WORK IN OUR SCHOOL

All children like to make things. And our children are no different from other children.

One of the aims of our school is to utilize our leisure hours pleasantly and profitably. In the past we have had a manual training class for the older boys and a sewing class for the older girls. This work done after school hours has been very enjoyable.

This past spring we felt that it was necessary to elaborate this program a little and we are endeavoring to extend opportunities in handicraft work to all the children above the second grade.

Besides work in woodcraft we intend to do work in metal craft, leather craft, bead work, weaving, molding book ends, vases, knickknacks of Keene Cement, and many other things.

To be able to buy materials for this work, the older girls made candy and sold it to our many friends on Dedication Day—May 12th. The sale was a great success and it has served as an inspiration to make other things for our friends.

If our readers have any suggestions for making simple handicraft articles, they will be very welcome and we shall be very grateful for them.

HOMeward BOUND

June 16th was a noteworthy day on our calendar. For it was the day our children left via train, bus, and car for their respective homes to spend their summer vacations.

Though the day had been most eventful with the pageant and festivities of the annual picnic, nevertheless it was an eager and joyful group of children that bid farewell to the Lutheran School for the Deaf for the summer.

A number of the parents from adjoining states drove here to attend the festival and take their respective children home.

Those children who had no homes to go to have been taken home by kindly friends of our Institute.

INSTITUTE RECEIVES TWO BEAUTIFUL PAINTINGS

Since to our knowledge no artist has ever depicted Christ's miracle of the healing of the deaf and dumb youth, the writer, some years ago, asked the Rev. C. G. Riedel who, besides being a good pastor, is also an accomplished artist, to paint such a picture to be hung in our Institute. Pastor Riedel could not grant us our wish at that time, but he did not forget our request. And just before the dedication of our new buildings, he surprised us by presenting to the Institute a beautiful framed painting of the healing of the deaf man. This work of art now hangs in the reception room where everyone upon entering our beautiful home can see and admire it.

We are deeply grateful to Pastor Riedel for the picture which so adequately depicts the nature of our work. As our good Lord gave to the deaf and dumb youth physical hearing and speech, so in our school the ears of our deaf children are opened in a spiritual way so that they, too, may learn to know their Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and speak His holy name.

LIFESIZE PORTRAIT OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER

Mr. Martin Breitenbach of Detroit presented our school with a life-size painting of Dr. Martin Luther. This beautiful oil painting depicts Dr. Luther preaching in his church. Framed it measures 8 feet 4 inches by 6 feet. It stands on the first landing of the stairway leading to the second floor of our administration building, where everyone upon entering the building is immediately reminded of the fact that our school is a Lutheran school. Many thanks to Mr. Breitenbach for this very appropriate painting.

CHILDREN HAVE INTERESTING PROGRAM

Each year at the annual festival of our Institute our children do their part to make the program interesting. This year we had a very fine program.

Our four youngest children served as pages and announced the program. The pre-grade and first grade children did a colorful balloon drill. They carried balloons which were all the colors of the rainbow and wore hats in matching colors.

A group of second grade girls, known as the Liberty Belles, brought in the patriotic note. Their costumes were made of the colors of the flag, red, white, and blue. Their drill was quite difficult for such small children, but they did it extremely well.

The older girls quite won the hearts of all present with a farmer girl drill. They looked very demure in sun-bonnets and aprons. One of the most interesting features of the whole program was the entrance of the scarecrows. The boys came in so stiffly that one almost believed that they had just come out of the fields. The old tattered clothes and straw helped with the illusion.

The older boys brought in the patriotic note again with a military drill. They did some marching and pyramid-building and ended with a peace-tower. In the peace-tower the boys built a high tower and one of the smaller boys held the Stars and Stripes on high.

Our children enjoy doing these drills and both the teachers and pupils cooperated in every way to make this part of the program a success.

OUR 8TH GRADE GRADUATES

The following pupils of our school having completed their course of study were graduated from the 8th grade in June:—Anna Nissen of Grant Park, Illinois; Alberta Moore of Grand Rapids, Michigan; Jerald Jordan of Roseville, Michigan; Loretta Kling of Otsego, Michigan, and Norman Hollrah of St. Charles, Missouri.

Tribute was given our graduates at the annual festival, Sunday, June 16th. The Rev. Ph. Bohn was the guest speaker. Our Director presented the diplomas. Class pins were proudly exhibited by the graduates.

The future of the five graduates may prove most interesting. "Jerry" Jordan made many of the Chrysler tours and has been a member of the Chrysler Handicraft Club. We are very proud to report that, although stone deaf, "Jerry" will enter a Public High School for hearing children this fall—so well has he mastered the art of lipreading in our school. He plans to be one of the chief "cogs" in the Chrysler Corporation some day. — Anna Nissen, a gifted girl, too, will continue her education in a high school for hearing children in her home town, Grant Park, Ill. — Norman Hollrah will complete his education at the State School at Fulton, Missouri. He intends to become a printer. — Alberta Moore will continue her work in the high school department of the Michigan State School at Flint. — Loretta Kling of Otsego, Mich., sees her future in housekeeping for which she is especially gifted. — We wish them all God's richest blessings and a very happy and profitable future.

OUR ANNUAL FESTIVAL

The Institute celebrated its annual festival on June 16th, which also was the closing date for the 1939-40 school term. The weather was ideal and the picnic grove well filled with friends of the Institute from far and near. Pastor W. Heyne of Pontiac, Mich., preached the German and Pastor H. Burandt of Detroit the English sermon in the morning service. Pastor K. Trautman of Toledo, Ohio, delivered the main address in the afternoon service. The Eastern Zone Choral Society under the direction of Mr. Paul Seeman of Utica, Mich., rendered several appropriate selections. Both services were well attended.

Preceding the afternoon service, the pupils of the Institute under the direction of the teachers gave a tion in beautiful home-like environment.

The school employs the oral method, teaching speech and lipreading to all children capable of being so taught. The manual and writing method is only used for such pupils as are unable to learn to speak and read lips.

Application blanks and further information may be obtained by addressing Director J. A. Klein, 6861 Nevada Ave., Detroit, Mich.

A WORD FROM OUR LADIES' AID

The Ladies' Aid Society for the Deaf is concluding a very busy season. They have welcomed many new members into the society and this fall they hope to gain many more.

The ladies are having their meetings at the Institute. This is as it should be, because it means a closer relationship between the staff, children and the ladies.

In May a joint meeting was held at Bethany Hall with the ladies of Macomb County. The Bethany ladies served us a very delicious luncheon. After short reports by several pastors, each society held its regular meeting.

On July 14th our society sponsored a Vesper Service at Glen Eden. Many ladies and their families who attended this service saw the most beautiful Lutheran Cemetery in our country.

Our next meeting will be the first Tuesday in September.

Mrs. E. HAGEN, Secretary.

VACATION ACTIVITIES OF TEACHERS AND DEACONESSES

Vacation days again found a number of our teachers enrolled in summer school classes. Miss Lundwall, Miss Forsberg and Mrs. Kirchoff attended Special Education classes at Wayne University in Detroit. Miss Wood spent six weeks at State Teachers' College in Ypsilanti taking courses in special education.

Miss Vetter, who during the summer months has become Mrs. Schinners, is proving her abilities in culinary arts.

Miss Born, much in need of a rest period, is still to be found enjoying the great out-of-doors in the wilds of northern Wisconsin.

Miss Fauth is out home with her parents in York, Penn.

Mr. Bellhorn is of course enjoying his vacation days with his family.

Director Klein, after spending a week with his family at beautiful Camp Arcadia and attending the Synodical Conference convention in Chicago, is again busy at his desk taking care of accumulated correspondence. Our deaconesses, too, enjoyed vacations away from school. Deac. M. Hartos, our secretary, spent a month with her parents in Wallington, N. J. Deac. Marie Bliefnick went to visit her sister, our good Deac. Margaret Bliefnick, who is regaining her health in the Wheatridge Sanatorium. The rest of her vacation she spent with her parents in Illinois. Deaconess Marie Twenhafel and Annchen Vierk attended the Deaconess Conference in Pittsburgh after which Miss Twenhafel spent some time in Fort Wayne, and Miss Vierck visited in St. Louis and Iowa. Deaconess Alice Klitzing enjoyed the summer at Camp Arcadia where she is Camp Nurse. Soon all our good workers will return refreshed and ready to resume their respective tasks of serving and teaching our many deaf children.
