The Highest Form of Service

Every Christian endeavors to make his life a life of service to God. The deepest source of joy is found in service, and the highest form of service consists in bringing others into fellowship with God the Father and with His Son, Jesus Christ. Accordingly, the best service we can render to children is to bring them to the knowledge of the Savior.

A noted educator stated at the opening of a rescue mission that, if only one child were saved by means of that mission, all the expenses of erecting and maintaining that establishment would be well paid for. After the ceremony a guest said to him: "Did you not exaggerate when you declared that the salvation of one child would be worth the cost of the school?" "No, I did not. This school is not too expensive if that child were my child," was the prompt and terse reply.

In our work among the deaf children we try to think of every child placed into our care as if that child were our child, whom we are leading to its Savior. No doubt you, who support this work with your gifts and prayers, have the same motive. We are all encouraged in this highest form of service by the words of our Lord: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my orethren, ye have done it unto Me."

OUR TEACHERS' CODE

A teacher should be natural and sincere.

A neat, attractive appearance is a positive aid to discipline.

A teacher's appearance must be appropriate to school work and school conditions.

The loyal teacher should be willing to receive and carry out good suggestions.

A teacher should try to put himself in the position of the pupil and see things from his standpoint.

The teacher's most important articles in his educational creed should be, "Treat every pupil with justice."

Any general form of pupil cooperation for the entire school must have the loyal co-operation of every teacher.

As children are sensitive, the teacher should handle a situation in such a way as to preserve the self-respect of the pupils.

The teacher should have regard for the safety and good order of pupils, and that demands the punctual performance of duties by the teacher.

The duty of the faithful teacher is to make the class room so pleasant, instruction so interesting and manner so attractive that ambition is assured.

Our 1942-1943 Teaching Staff

The teacher should show interest in the welfare of the school as a whole. He should contribute his honest share to the team work which conditions the success of a school.

The teacher should keep a strict account of tests, oral work, and other data that will aid him in giving the child a just mark on the report card. The teacher should not trust his own judgment.

The teacher should be openminded toward new educational theories. To this end it is necessary for the teacher to be a reader of current literature, and to be willing to do experimental work.

Many teachers, whose work is otherwise meritorious, are prone to underestimate the importance of neatness, accuracy, and promptness in their clerical work. They do not realize that the proper keeping of a record has a very serious and often a legal aspect.

A teacher should avoid being easily upset by little aggravating, unimportant matters. In face of provocation, he should maintain poise, and only then will he be master of the situation. An angry, defiant child can be met successfully only by a person superior to anger. To yield to temper is to sink to the child, and thereby lose control of the situation.—Selected.

MANY NEW PUPILS ENROLL

The new school year again found our Institute filled to capacity. Last June, seventeen of our pupils left us through confirmation. Their leaving made it possible for us to accept just so many new children in September plus one day pupil. Many more applications for enrollment were received but these could not be accepted on account of lack of room. The names of some of the applicants were placed on our waiting list to be enrolled next year.

The names of our new children are Robert Alward, Carol Bilyeu, Lois Brandes, Gerold Evers, Robert Gordon, Robert Grumm, Barbara Heath, Dean Hoffmann, Karen Holte, Sidney Johnston, Ramona Kenning, Curtis Ketelson, Edward Kipple, Julia Madach, Carol Ruff, Jacquelin Rylander, Lorna Schankin, Robert Tatum. They come from the following states: Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, North Dakota, Nebraska, California and Canada. The rest of our pupils represent many more states.

Into the Lord's hands we commend all our children. May His holy angels guard them that no evil may come nigh unto them. And may His Holy Spirit enlighten, sanctify and keep them in the one true faith.

Miss Martha Grabert

MEET OUR TEACHERS

Miss Martha Grabert is one of the four new teachers at the Lutheran Institute for the Deaf. Her home is in Cape Girardeau, Mo. She took her training for teaching the deaf at Central Institute in St. Louis, and received her Bachelor of Science degree from Washington University last June. Before entering Central Institute for the Deaf, she attended Teachers' College at Cape Girardeau and Peabody College at Nashville, Tennessee, and is a graduate of William Woods Junior College in Fulton, Missouri.

Miss Grabert is the teacher of Barbara Brauer, Patty Fountain, Melvin Maudlin, Marlene Nabors, Donald Scheiderer, and Warren Twork, who are in the High Pre-Grade. — In future issues of the Deaf Child's Advocate we hope to introduce to you other members of our teaching as well as household staff.

EPHPHATHA

Read what others say about our 4-reel 16mm film "Ephphatha" and then arrange for a booking. Old and young will be interested in seeing it.

Cumberland, Maryland My Dear Sir:

Enclosed is our cheque covering the receipts of the showing of "Ephphatha." I truly wish it could be more. But I believe that the picture will bear richer fruit in the years to come. Our people were delighted. They were pleased to learn that our church was willing to accept the challenge of this work, and were especially commendatory of the patience and mainstaking efforts of your workers.

All wondered if it were not possible somehow to show this in every congregation of Synod. We here in the East are hardly aware of the Institute, and we have at present here in Cumberland, people from established congregations in the Middle West, who were also uninformed.

We are considering a return showing, and hope that you can produce another film.

May God's blessing rest upon your labors.

Very truly yours, Rev. William von Spreckelsen.

Victor, Iowa

Dear Mr. Klein:

We showed your film here and at Victor. It is about the best job that I have seen. The picture was enjoyed by all. The weather caught us off guard. It rained and the attendance was small, but everybody present was pleased with it.

I returned the film by insured express Friday night. I would like to have the film for our County teachers' meeting August 28-29. The county Superintendent asked me to get it for that date, if possible. At that time I will try to show it at a few other places. Please let me know whether I may have it then.

The picture arrived in A1 shape and was returned in good condi-

Thanking you for your favors, I remain,

Sincerely yours, Rev. Fred Voigtmann

A SOUVENIR FOR YOU

In appreciation of your continued friendship and generous support of their Christian school and home our deaf children will send to every one of our "Advocate" readers a souvenir. Uncle Sam's postman will bring this little gift to you within the near future.—What is it? Wait and see. —We hope that you will like the little token and that it will tend to warm your hearts ever more for the cause of your less fortunate brothers and sisters.

A VALUABLE GIFT

We are deeply grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Bluhm for the presentation of a new hearing aid to our school. The benevolent gift is now being used in Mr. Bellhorn's seventh and eighth grade classroom.

Most children with residual hearing can derive some benefit from the use of a hearing aid, therefore the value of this instrument in teaching procedure can hardly be over-estimated.

It may interest our readers to know that hearing aids cost $300, and that our goal, as a modern well-equipped school, is—A Hearing Aid for Every Classroom. We have eleven classrooms. Mr. and Mrs. Bluhm have brought us closer to our goal with their gift; we now have five hearing aids, and a growing fund for the sixth, which will be purchased just as soon as we have been beatified with sufficient resources to do so. We realize and appreciate that all our friends will do their part toward helping us achieve our goals.

AT HOME

WITH JESUS

Since last August, we received the information through Memorial Wreath gifts that a number of our friends and readers of the Deaf Child's Advocate have been called home to be with Jesus in everlasting bliss. Among them were Rev. F. Rutkowsky, Auburn, Mich., Rev. T. Brockman, Springfield, Ill., Rev. Theo. Baumgart, Lanesville, Ind., Rev. R. Heschke, Hilbert, Wis., Rev. Paul Kolb, Watertown, Wis., Mr. Mike Bernthal, Mr. Martin Zucker, Mr. Andrew Galsterer and Mrs. Martin Hubinger, Frankenmuth, Mich., Mr. Ernst Bickel, Hemlock, Mich., Mr. Paetsch, E. Detroit, Mich., Mr. Arthur Zube, Mr. Theo. Zink, Sr., Mr. Hy. C. Maul, Mrs. Frances Ruschinski, Mrs. Wm. Besler, Mr. Fred Eitner, Sr., and Mrs. Emma Kreager, Detroit, Mich., Mr. C. F. Schneider, Adrian, Mich., Mrs. John Heinlein, Mrs. Katherine Kern, Saginaw, Mich., Mr. Fred Blomenberg, Decatur, Ind., Mrs. H. F. C. Mueller, Ft. Dodge, Ia., Mr. Arnold W. Schroeder, Freeport, Ill., Mr. Hy. Wagner, Kendallville, Ind., Mr. Wm. Rolf, Mora, Minn., Mrs. Hy. Germann, Holgate, Ohio, and Mr. A. D. Riewe, Hamilton, Texas. All were real friends of our deaf children and ardent supporters of our work. The Master has called them home. We who remain will miss them as well as their many deeds of love and faith.

We would appreciate it greatly if, when a reader of "The Advocate" is taken to the heavenly home, the relatives would so inform us in order that we might make the proper name changes on our mailing list. In all such cases we shall be glad to send our little paper to another member of the family.

Mr. Bellhorn Teaching with Our New Hearing Aid

OUR ANNUAL APPEAL

Friends, our annual appeal will reach you soon. In the past you have so generously and consistently given our deaf children your support which made it possible to serve them physically and spiritually. You have been feeding the Bread of Life to these less fortunate little ones. You have been leading them to Christ and salvation. A greater deed of love can no man perform.

Our children still need your support, now perhaps more than ever before, due to the very high cost of living. They continue to have faith in you. They are confident that you will not fail them. So when their message reaches you, they hope you will find it convenient to place a gift in the enclosed selfaddressed and prestamped envelope and send it to us. If it is possible for you to increase your gift a little this year, it will be appreciated so much since our expenditures promise to be much greater. Our Lord says, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

THIS AND THAT

Teaching Staff 1942-43

The June issue of the Advocate brought our readers a picture of our 1941-42 teaching staff. Since there are several new faces on the 1942-43 staff, we again bring a picture of the staff in order that the parents of our children might know in whose care their little ones are. The names of our teachers from left to right are: Mr. Robert Schmitz, Miss Linelle Hamilton, Mrs. Vide Shinners, Miss Ruth Thoman, Miss Sara Kellams, Mrs. Elsa Vogel, Miss Emily Born, Miss Martha Grabert, Miss Elsie Forsberg, Mr. Walter Bellhorn, and Director John A. Klein.

Household Staff

Our household staff has had changes, too. The new members are Deaconesses Clara Strehlow and Esther Matz, assistant housemothers, Mrs. Esther Alward, chief cook, Mrs. Grace Terneus, assistant cook, Mrs. Emma Folkemer, assistant to the boys' housemothers, Miss Anna Dehning, student deaconess, and Johann Furth. janitor.

Improvements

Upon their return to school after the summer vacation period, our pupils found a nice new six-foot chain link fence along the western boundary of our playground. This fence will safeguard our pupils from the dangers of the ever increasing traffic on Helen Avenue.

The teachers and other staff members who live in the North Wing found their rooms, the kitchen, store room and dining room redecorated. The playground boasts of four new see-saws, a combination of swing, trapeze, and rings, as well as a new slide. The children have ample outdoor recreational facilities now.—We still need indoor play apparatus.

Our good L. A. Association had new slipcovers made for the upholstered furniture in the boys' and girls' living rooms. The chairs and tables in the nursery rooms were repainted in beautiful bright colored enamel. These good ladies also provided a fine home-coming dinner for our large family on October 6th. This meal was greatly enjoyed by all.

Mr. Litke and his friend had seven of the boys' mattresses restuffed. We are very grateful for this gift. Our boys, no doubt, will enjoy their slumbers ever so much more now and probably will be much harder for the housemother to awaken in the morning.

Vacation Activities of Our Teachers

Miss Elsie Forsberg, our Kindergarten teacher, attended Northern Michigan College of Education at Marquette, Michigan, where she received her Bachelor of Science degree, after which she spent part of her vacation at Pelican Lake, Wis., where she and Miss Emily Born landed many an oversized bass and pike if one is to believe the stories they brought back.

graduate work at Marquette College and then vacationed inCalifornia and points between there and here. He spent one week as a waiter in a Los Angeles hotel. Mrs. Shinners kept house for her good husband and Mr. Bellhorn assisted the Director at the Institute.

Canning Bee

In August we received seventeen bushels of peaches from the Knorr Orchards and forty-nine bushels of pears from Mrs. Wm. Knudsen. These fruits were all canned for future use by members of our good Ladies' Aid. Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Jacob Koester and Mrs. Zuelch were instrumental in getting a fine group of willing workers to help us with this gigantic task. Mrs. Koester, although eighty-one years old, never fails to lend a hand when there is work to be done.

MOVIES ARE HERE AGAIN

"When shall we have movies again?" That question asked many times by the children since school opened proves that the pictures presented last year were enjoyed by all. But we haven't let them down. Knowing the educational value involved, a fine schedule of more than 60 reels has been arranged which includes Science, Geography, Safety, Nature Study, History, Travelouges, and comics, plus several of the latest Patriotic Shorts which are certainly timely.

It is the educational movie that so often illustrates clearly to the deaf child what the teacher so patiently tries to explain and describe in the classroom. The teaching time of any subject is tremendously reduced after the class has

Mr. Robert Schmitz took post seen that subject illustrated in moving pictures. They continue to be a real aid in educating the deaf child.

> The first showing is scheduled for Oct. 9th. By the time this appears in print, nearly 200 little eyes will have witnessed it and little voices will again ask, "When shall we have movies again?"

THEY SAY THAT I AM DEAF

By THOMAS A. ULMER

They say that I am deaf. I cannot hear

The crowing of the cock; bold Chanticleer

Struts proudly to his post; from garden wall,

Awakes a sleeping world with clarion call.

They say that I am deaf. I cannot hear

The music of the brook, that leaps the weir,

And bubbles through the glen; then slips away

With leap and whirl to hide within the bay.

They say that I am deaf. I cannot hear

The loving voice of her whom I revere,

Singing in the twilight, calling soft and low.

With the voice of Angels, all her love aglow.

They say that I am deaf. But I can "hear"

Those little acts that make your love sincere,

And kindnesses that help me understand

The things about me, in God's wonderland.
