Seventy Years Old

Man Proposes, God Disposes

<sup>Four</sup> "Three score years and ten" ago Detroit Lutherans decided to do something special for under-privileged children. Thus they conducted their first meeting on February 17, 1873, in order to found an orphans' home at Royal Oak, about ten miles north of the heart of Detroit. The history of this home is known: Pastor G. Speckhard was called to be the superintendent. He brought two deaf children with him in order to finish their catechetical instruction. When parents of other deaf children heard of this, they brought them to Pastor Speckhard—and by the end of the first year he had twenty deaf children from six States in the "orphans' home." Upon suggestion of Doctor Walther, the few orphans on hand were sent to an orphanage at Addison, Ill., and the Royal Oak home was recognized as the first and only Lutheran and Protestant institute for the deaf to this day.

The early minutes of the association for the institute show that Mr. Strubel was the first chairman and Mr. John Keil the first secretary. The first Board of Directors consisted of the Reverend Huegli, Mr. Strubel, Mr. Beyer, Mr. Walz, Mr. Keil, Mr. Albrecht, Mr. Rehahn, Mr. Jung, and Mr. Berger (no initials are given). The first officers of the association were: President, the Reverend Huegli; Vice-president, Mr. Strubel; Secretary, Mr. Beyer; Treasurer, Mr. Keil; and Cashier, Mr. Rehahn. On March 31, 1873, the resolution was adopted to incorporate the association, and that day was thereafter known as "founders day." Plans were made to erect a new building for the institution. Pastors Moll and Speckhard prepared the campaign literature, and a "regular collector" was engaged to solicit liberal funds "anywhere he might be able to do so, especially in Waldenburg and Roseville," not forgetting Detroit. Pastor Moll was asked to mail the campaign literature to all pastors listed in the calendar of the Missouri Synod. By 1875 the well-known three-story building which was razed in 1939 to make room for the present group of buildings was dedicated with joy and glory to God. The service was conducted on the third Sunday in May, with the Rev. Prof. Hy. Dietrich of Fort Wayne, Ind., delivering the sermon.

Sheilla Riddell of Arcadia, Cal., whose home is the farthest from our school

Our Institute for the Deaf, as it is commonly called, has experienced great grace from God. There were dark days. The minutes of the very fourth meeting of the association speak of trouble. There were problems, want, anxiety, gloom, and almost despair. But the Lord always showed us the way out. And He also gave us good friends, who liberally supported the noble cause of our school. At first the managing association consisted of "voting members in any of the congregations in Michigan affiliated with the Synod of Missouri, Ohio, and Other States." (Original governing articles, paragraph 3.) In the course of years this association was changed to one of congregations, so that now it consists of 48 member congregations, which love our Institute and work for it with a joyful spirit. For sixty-five years or more a group of Lutheran ladies of Detroit have labored and sacrificed for the Institute. At first they collected funds and food for it, walking, and canvassing, and traveling as far as the northern part of Macomb County to bring in a few pennies, and nickels, and dimes, and here and there a pound or a bushel of vegetables and potatoes. Now they sew, and mend, and can, and give of their money for the Institute and for individual children. Throughout the church God keeping it these seventy years, and by blessing it continually above our worthiness and expectation to this very day. Glory be to God for His grace! And may He be with us in the days to come, whether they be good or evil, and permit us to serve Him through our Institute for the Deaf more than we have done before!

MACOMB COUNTY LADIES' AUXILIARY MEETS

The Ladies' Aid of Macomb County for the Support of our Institute met in regular meeting on Sunday, January 10, at St. Peter's School in Macomb. Preceding the meeting, the members and their husbands and friends enjoyed a fine potluck dinner.

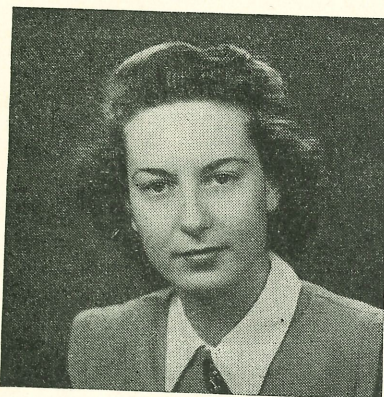

Mrs. George Sebald, re-elected president of the society, presided at the business meeting. Rev. O. Knoll acted as Chaplain. A detailed report on the work at the Institute, received from Director Klein, was read. After the close of the business meeting, the ladies of St. John's, who are members of the Society, presented two short plays which were greatly enjoyed by all present. The generous offering received will be devoted to the furtherance of the blessed work in our Institute. The officers of the Society are Mrs. George Sebald, president; Mrs. E. C. Knorr, Vice-president; Mrs. Louis Heinecke, recording secretary; Mrs. George Winterstein, treasurer. — A resolution was passed to hold the regular business meetings bi-monthly for the duration. — May our dear Lord bless the active ladies of Macomb for their unselfish devotion to the work of bringing handicapped children to Christ and salvation.

MEET OUR TEACHERS

Miss Linelle Hamilton and Miss Sara Kellams, whom we are introducing to you in this issue, are two of our new teachers this year. Both has given us wonderful friends, who readily helped us to build our present plant and who remember us annually with their kind support. This year we have not only been able to meet our current expenses, but also to make our interest payments and to pay off some of our debts. All in all, God has been good to us, our school and its work, our teachers and pupils, our deaconesses and employees, and all who are connected with the Institute; and He has shown us countless examples of splendid fruits of our endeavors in the Christian lives and activities of our graduates in their contact with the world and in their service to the Church.

But we cannot elaborate. Suffice it to say: God has been very good to our Institute by bringing it into being in His providential way, by took their training at Central Institute in St. Louis and received their Bachelor of Science degrees from Washington University last June.

Miss Hamilton, the first grade teacher, is from Danville, Kentucky. Her pupils are: Carol Ruff, Kenneth Carter, Bobbie Keck, Julia Madach, Ronald Hicks, Leonard LaCasse, Patty Babcock, Karen Holte, Barbara Heath, and Frances Wentzel.

Miss Kellams' home is in St. Louis, Missouri. She is the Prep B teacher and has the following pupils: Nelson Finks, Albert Hill, David Bromberg, Sheila Riddell, Ramona Kenning, Grace DeRouville, Beverly Kropp, Bobbie Clawson, and Rosella Schultz.

GOLD, FRANKINCENSE AND MYRRH

The Wise Men from the East came to Bethlehem and fell down and worshipped the Christ Child and presented unto Him gifts: gold, frankincense and myrrh. You, dear readers, during the recent holiday season, honored the Savior of the World even as did the Wise Men of old. At Christmastime, you again in spirit followed the star to the manger in Bethlehem where you bowed your knees in adoration to the King of Kings and brought unto Him your gifts of love and faith in order that deaf children might also partake of that great joy and happiness which will be theirs through faith in the Redeemer whom they learn to know and love at your Lutheran Institute for the Deaf. Your valued gifts to our Institute and the many kind words of encouragement expressed in your letters to the members of our staff, words which help so much to create a new desire to serve and to continue at a difficult but glorious task, were most gratefully received and appreciated. May our dear Lord, the Giver of all good gifts, bless each and every one of our friends and readers for their sacrificing deeds of love. Our deaf children join us when we say, "We thank you from the bottom of our hearts."

To those of our friends and readers who have not as yet found it possible to send an offering, we wish to say that contributions are always welcome and that our self-addressed and prestamped envelopes, which you have, can be used at any time. We also want to remind all donors that contributions made to our Institute are deductible on your income tax report.

ANOTHER HEARING AID

Once more we have been blessed with the gift of a new hearing aid. Our sincere appreciation is extended to Mrs. Caroline Hemmeter, of Detroit, for this most generous present.

Most of our readers are acquainted with the importance of hearing aids in teaching the children in our school. Because these instruments are so valuable in our work, we have set a goal for "A Hearing Aid for Every Classroom." Mrs. Hemmeter, with her generous gift, has carried us over the half-way mark — hers brings our total to six hearing aids. We have eleven classrooms; and we know that through the splendid co-operation and interest of our many good friends, we shall continue to be blessed until we have reached our looming goal.

Our new hearing aid is an "Aurex" which is one of the best instruments of this kind on the market today. It was ordered by Mrs. Hemmeter through the local Aurex representative, Mr. F. W. McKenna, at a cost of $330.00. Ordinarily this aid would have cost considerably more. However, Mr. McKenna, being a real friend of our Institute and especially of our deaf children, he being hard of hearing himself, donated to our school his entire profit on this sale. The instrument has ten sets of double earphones which are adjustable so that the sound waves will reach both ears at equal intensity, even though the loss of hearing may be greater in one ear than in the other. It is truly a fine instrument and we are very grateful to our kind donor, Mrs. Hemmeter.

AT HOME WITH JESUS

Through Memorial Wreath gifts information reached us of the passing into their eternal home of the following readers of "The Deaf Child's Advocate": Rev. O. Lebahn of California; Rev. J. G. F. Kleinhans and Eugene Stern of Illinois; Louis Erdman, Kathryn Rosenbaum, Oscar Wambsgans and Andrew Werling of Indiana; Otto Armbruster, Christina Bauer, Norman Behnke, Noraine Bender, John Bernthal, Mrs. Gilbert Bilby, Mrs.

Mike Block, Fred Boesenecker, Hilda Droegemueller, Mrs. Chas Engel, Mrs. John Foerster, Leonard Foerster, John Graf, Capt. Carl Kaiser, Mathilda Kramer, Henry Klei, Sophia List, Emilie Luttermoser, Mrs. Adam Meyer, Prof. Fred Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Mueller, Loraine Ann Neuman, Helen Noyes, Arthur Nobis, Carl Pioch, Lydia Reinbold, Johanna Rhode, Mrs. Fred Rosbeck, Theresa Rockensuess, Emil Schallhorn, Eric Sopha, Mrs. Rudolph Twork, Arthur Timpf, Mr. Voss, George Wendt, Pauline Wentzel, Johanna Zehnder, and Arthur

Zube of Michigan; Chas. Heine, of Nebraska; Rev. H. F. R. Stechholz of New Jersey; Lawrence F. Cuniff, New York; Theodore Brauer, Joyce Ann Heldberg, Emilie Krueger, Rev. C. Schroeder, and Hannah Seefeld of Ohio; Rev. F. W. Lammert, Rev. E. M. Robert, and Winston Spencer of Texas; Dr. Eugene Bergholz, Mrs. H. A. Bennisson, August Rohde, Norman H. Sibilsky, and George Zurstadt of Wisconsin. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yes, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."

This and That

For Christmas our ever co-operative Ladies' Aid for the Deaf provided our children with well-filled Christmas stockings. The Society, also, gave the sum of $100.00 with which to purchase indoor play materials. — A number of other Ladies' Aid Societies from near and far remembered our children with toys and scrapbooks, and our home with quilts, towels and bedding. We are most grateful to all for having been so thoughtful of our needs. — On January 24th, our Ladies' Aid Society had its annual banquet at which Pastor C. E. Nitzke was the toastmaster and Pastor Buchheimer the main speaker. The attendance was approximately three hundred.

All but twelve of our pupils as well as most of our staff members enjoyed a well-deserved Christmas vacation at home or with friends. — The first semester of the school term being in the irretrievable past, the report cards for the work done during that period have gone forward to the parents of our pupils. We are happy to state that most children made satisfactory progress in most subjects.

The many comments received on our souvenir, Linda Ray Moore's picture, are an indication to us that our readers liked it. — Our Alarm System fund has grown by $10.00 — Since our last issue, we heard from the following of our former pupils: Gordon Bergman and Donna Lee Beck now attending school in Jacksonville, Illinois, Wayne Kelly in the Indianapolis school; Christel Erdman at College in Washington, D. C.; Shirley Ery in the Michigan School; Arthur Scheiman of Fort Wayne, who is an expert toolmaker; Herman Leifheit and Herbert Kohn, who are farmers in Illinois and Wisconsin respectively; and Betty Jean Beaver of Toledo, Ohio. We are always glad to hear from our former children and hope that we shall hear from many more from time to time.

Some of our busy pastors mentioned our Institute, its work, and its needs in their church bulletins during the past festival season. We appreciate such publicity. — In the School Bulletin of the First Lutheran School of Long Beach, California appeared the following composition on our Institute by John Lensch, a 6-B pupil:

"In Detroit is a school that teaches deaf children the Word of God. It is the only Protestant School that teaches the Word of God to deaf children.

"You should be thankful you have ears to hear with. Just think, deaf people hear nothing. It is just a world of silence, but, by a special method, these children can be taught the Word of God.

"We are now collecting nickels and dimes for this school. Our room has collected almost twelve feet of nickels. We hope to collect more." Well done, John. We thank you.

A number of our men in the armed forces of our country remembered our Institute with gifts. May our dear Lord bless them for their offerings and may His holy angels guard and protect the kind donors and bring them back to their loved ones at home sound in body and spirit.

What our readers say about the "Advocate": "Have been receiving 'The Deaf Child's Advocate' and I surely appreciate it very much." — "We enjoy reading 'The Deaf Child's Advocate'." — "I have read every copy of 'The Deaf Child's Advocate' and I realize the wonderful work which is being done at your Institute." — "I receive the 'Advocate' which I enjoy reading from cover to cover." We DO appreciate these comments.

Deaconess Clara Strehlow was transferred from our Institute to Pastor Karl Kurth's parish in St. Louis. We miss Deaconess Strehlow, but hope that she is happy in her new environment and pray that the Lord may bless her labors in her new field of activity. Deaconess Ida Stolte, until recently active in the Lutheran orphanage in New Orleans, will fill the vacancy in our Institute.

Karen Anne Holte, a sweet little girl of four years, entered our school after Christmas. Karen came all the way from Grand Forks, North Dakota, to be reared and educated in a Christian school. Bringing her to our school demonstrates the real love Karen's parents have for her, a love which surmounts all obstacles in order that their little one might be brought to Jesus, her Redeemer. Does this teach some of us a lesson?

Our film, Ephphatha, is always on the road, traveling from one end of the country to the other. From reports received, we gather that it is enjoyed wherever it is shown. We suggest that you, too, ask to have it booked for your congregation.

In the months of February and March seventy years ago, the seeds were sown which, through the blessings of God, resulted in our beautiful Institute for the Deaf of today. God, indeed, blessed the labours of our fathers beyond expectations. To Him be all praise and glory.

The following members of our staff have just completed an extensive First Aid course. They are Edna Klitzing, Deaconess Marie Twenhafel, Caroline Kruse, Ruth Kahler, Mrs. Vide Shinnars, Mrs. Elsa Vogel, and Elsie Forsberg. — The husbands of Mrs. Vide Shinnars and Mrs. Elsa Vogel are in the armed forces of our country. Mr. Shinnars is somewhere on the West Coast and Mr. Vogel is in New Guinea.

On February 19th, our friends of the Aural Guild, of which Mrs. C. M. Kern is the president, entertained our pupils with moving pictures, ginger ale and cookies. This has become an annual event to which our children look forward with great anticipation. The party was a complete success, and Mrs. Kern and her associates were given a hearty vote of thanks as well as a cordial invitation to come again.

Our boys have an Airplane Club.

And you should see their club room. It really resembles a work shop more than it does a club room, for in it one sees all kinds of finished air planes as well as such as are still under construction. They range from the smallest Taylor Cub to the biggest bomber models. The members of the club are Elroy Meyer, Richard Holle, Steven Klein, Odis Landsverk, Carl Schneider, Norman Davis, Eugene Winans, Donald Atkins, and Peter Merutka. Elroy is the president of the Club. The planes that these boys build are really something to marvel at.

Crown Point, Ind.—I am enclosing $— for the maintenance of the Institute. The Deaf Child's Advocate is more interesting right along. I enjoy reading how much interest people take in your work. I also like to read about the doings of the children. May God bless your work and keep the children in good health. — Milwaukee, Wis.— In memory of the sainted Mrs. Dietz several ladies are sending you $—. Have been deeply moved with this project of our Church. All the more, since I have seen it, I am able to know what to say about this Institute. — Evansville, Ind.—The film of the Institute was very well received by those who were present. The film is very good. People remarked about the wonderful work being done there and the fine building which you now have. It was a revelation to them. — Peoria, Ill.—The "Advocate" is read from cover to cover. The appearance of these papers helps to keep me thankful for my many blessings not enjoyed by all.

Wausau, Wis.—I have been receiving the "Advocate" regularly since I enrolled in the Deaf Child's Friends Club. Now as I become more informed of this wonderful Institution through each issue of your paper, I look forward with more and more interest to receiving my copy.—You will find enclosed $—. I hope to add to my small contribution in the future. — Minneapolis, Minn.—I am enclosing $—. I wish I could send more. I enjoy reading the Deaf Child's Advocate. I think you are doing a wonderful work among deaf children. God bless you.
